

PARTNERSHIP FOR PUBLIC SERVICE

Use the QR codes to explore government careers.

Coming soon!
GoGovernment will feature a site for State of California government careers. Launches Fall 2026 - subscribe to our newsletter to be the first to know when it's live!

GoGovernment.org

GoGovernment is designed to be your guide as you consider, apply, and secure government employment. We'll help you research government agencies and government careers as well as provide practical tips for completing your application.

Federal Internship Finder

This tool compiles publicly accessible information about professional and academic opportunities in government for students and recent graduates into one centralized place. Find over 700 opportunities!

GoGovernment Newsletter

Sign up today for the GoGovernment newsletter to learn more about opportunities in both federal and state government.

Career Guides

Our government offers jobs in all disciplines. Use each guide to learn about top hiring agencies, example job descriptions, job series codes to help you in your search, and more.

CalCareers

The official application system for California state jobs. This is where you create your profile, take required exams, apply for positions, and track your applications.

This resource was created by the California Department of Human Resources.

CalHR

Want to better understand how California state hiring works? CalHR provides the policies, exams, classifications, and pay information that guide the civil service process.

This resource was created by the California Department of Human Resources.

Work for California

Explore over 600 career paths across California state departments. Learn about job benefits, career growth opportunities, hiring events, and step-by-step resources to help you prepare before applying.

This resource was created by the California Department of Human Resources.

Statement of Qualifications Guide (SOQ)

Not sure how to write a strong SOQ? This guide explains how to structure your responses and clearly connect your experience to what the hiring manager is looking for.

This resource was created by the California Department of Human Resources.

Employment Exams and Assessments Video

A quick guide to help you understand California state exams, how they work, and how they affect your job applications.

This resource was created by the California Department of Human Resources.

California Veterans' Preference

Explore how veterans' preference is integrated into California's civil service hiring process, along with the necessary steps eligible applicants must take to be considered for positions.

This resource was created by the California Department of Human Resources.

California LEAP

LEAP offers an alternative pathway into state service for qualified candidates with disabilities through skill demonstration instead of a traditional exam.

This resource was created by the California Department of Human Resources.

